

VULNERABILITY ASSESSMENT

SOJOSPECT

v2.0.0

Scanned By: admin

Scan Date: 2024-02-02 17:21:36

Target: <http://testphp.vulnweb.com/>

GREENFOSSIL PTE LTD

Table of Contents

Executive Summary	3
Scan Results	3
Our Findings	3
Risk Assessment	4
Clickjacking	4
Description	4
Recommendations	4
References	4

Executive Summary

This report provides an overview of the Vulnerability Test Assessment conducted for Greenfossils' Church Management System, addressing the OWASP Top 10 security risks. The assessment aims to identify and evaluate vulnerabilities in the company's web application and infrastructure which enables informed decision-making to enhance the overall security posture.

Conducted Scans:

- Clickjacking

Scan Results

High Severity	Medium Severity	Low Severity
0	0	1

Our Findings

No.	Vulnerability	Severity
1	Clickjacking	Low

Risk Assessment

Clickjacking

Description

Clickjacking is a web attack that deceives users into clicking on something different than what they see. Attackers place an invisible layer over a legitimate website, tricking users into interacting with hidden elements on a malicious page.

Recommendations

It is recommended to implement X-Frame-Options with the values of DENY or SAMEORIGIN. Additionally, deploy the Content Security Policy with frame-ancestors set to value none.

References

<https://portswigger.net/web-security/clickjacking>

<https://developer.mozilla.org/en-US/docs/Web/HTTP/X-Frame-Options>